MOTOR ROADS PROVIDED AT LOWER COSTS

Highway Investment By Liberals Averages $92,000 Below Conservative Record

Hon. W. H. Sutherland Reviews Provincial Progress at Saanich Meeting

Despite reconstruction of the Provincial highway system for heavy motor traffic, building of 4,000 miles of new road and erection of costly steel bridges at many points, the Liberal Administration has, during the last ten years, lowered by $92,000 annually the average investment of British Columbia in highways, as compared with the expenditures over a comparable period under Conservative control. Dr. W. H. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works, last night stated at Hampton Hall, Saanich, when addressing an enthusiastic meeting of Ward Seven Saanich Liberals in support of Norman W. Whittaker, Liberal candidate in Saanich.

BOOKLET IN DEMAND
Dr. Sutherland told of the wide demand which had followed publication by the Government of the remarkable booklet criticized as Liberal propaganda by Opposition speakers. Demands were being made by financial leaders of the East for hundreds of copies for distribution among their clients who offer better prices for the bonds of British Columbia than for issues of any other Province or even the Dominion.

ALL NORTHERN SEATS LIBERAL

Upper B.C. Solid For Government in Election, Says Premier MacLean

Vancouver, June 21.—"We have not a weak seat in the North," Mr. MacLean said last night. "We have a solid North. In fact, we will win every seat in the North," declared Premier J. D. MacLean, who arrived here this morning from Northern British Columbia to attend the Vancouver Liberal nominating convention to-night.

The Premier has been out on the hustings campaigning, addressing sometimes as many as four meetings daily. The work appears to agree with him, for he is looking in much better health than for sometime, and bears a tan acquired in much motor driving through northern areas.

Dr. MacLean proposes to discuss the总理 manifesto at some length at the Liberal convention to-night.

Speaking generally of the campaign throughout the Province, he expressed himself as "absolutely satisfied."

GEN. CHETWODE SENT TO INDIA

London, June 21 (Canadian Press Cable)—General Sir Philip Chetwode, a member of the British Army Council, has been appointed chief of the general staff in India. He succeeds Lieutenant-General Sir A. Skeen, who has served under the commander-in-chief, Field Marshal Sir W. R. Birdwood, since 1924.

General Chetwode was the author of the military plan by which Field Marshal Allenby pursued the offensive in Palestine during the Great War. Up to last year General Chetwode was commander-in-chief of the Aldershot command. He is fifty-nine years old and served throughout the World War.

SAANICH LIBERAL CAMPAIGN BRISK

Following an enthusiastic meeting last night in support of the candidature of Norman W. Whittaker, Liberal candidate, Saanich Liberals will continue the brisk campaign with another meeting to-night at Cedar Beach Hotel, Mr. Whittaker and W. M. Ivel will speak. On Monday Mr. Whittaker will speak at Prospect Lake School, on Tuesday at Shelbourne Street Hall, on Wednesday at St. Mark's Hall and on Thursday at Mackenzie Avenue School. Mr. Whittaker's campaign quarters are 2853 Douglas Street, phone 8721.

The British Ambassador at Washington will soon have a new home. Following the laying of the cornerstone a few days ago, construction work on the $750,000 building is being carried out. TENSION HIGH IN BELGRADE

Government Preventing Outbreaks in Yugoslavia After Murder of Two Deputies

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, June 21.—Punja Ratchitch, Montenegrin deputy, who shot and killed two deputies and wounded four during a session of the Yugoslav National Assembly here yesterday, was held in custody to-day on a charge of murder.

"I am ready to be taken out immediately and shot without trial," he exclaimed. "I have fulfilled my task."

When previously Ratchitch had tried to see the Minister of the Interior, Father Korozich, the latter said: "I receive no murderer. Surrender to the gendarmes in my anteroom."

ALL GO ARMY
Ratchitch was asked why he carried a revolver in Parliament and replied: "Oh, everybody in the Balkans carries a small arsenal in his belt. Why not I?"

All Yugoslavia is mourning the victims of yesterday's tragedy. The newspapers have appeared with black borders. Many stores, theatres and moving picture houses and cafes are closed. Trams and trains have ceased to run temporarily.

DANGERS ARE SEEN
The peasants, among whom those killed and wounded were held in high esteem, are in a state of dangerous agitation. There are mutterings and high tension. A firm hand will be needed to keep them under restraint. Thus far only the Democratic members of the Cabinet have resigned, but it is believed those remaining can not long survive.

Sale of B.C.E.R. Makes Profit For British Company

London, June 21 (Canadian Press Cable)—The successive bids for stock of the British Columbia Electric Railway by a syndicate of Canadian financiers and Lord Rothermere had the effect of substantially increasing the value of the railway stock before it was purchased by the bidders, and this is reflected in greatly increased profits for the British Empire Trust Company, a 1/5 holder of British Columbia Electric Railway Company shares. The report to-day showed the profits of the trust company increased from $855,000 to $1,200,000, directors stating this was largely due to the realization on the company's holdings of the railway's deferred and preferred stock.

Charles F. Adams of Calgary and James F. Wall of Walla Walla were chosen vice-presidents. Raymond Crossman of Omaha, Neb., was unanimously re-elected treasurer. Milwaukee was chosen as the 1928 convention city. Cummings is an official of an insurance company. Adams is an attorney and Neal is supervisor of transportation in the Washington State Department of Public Works.

LIBERAL CONVENTION TO BE BROADCAST

Speeches and music at the Victoria Liberal Convention in the Royal Victoria Theatre Friday night will be broadcast by radio so that thousands of listeners in all over British Columbia may hear the proceedings. Besides speeches by Premier MacLean and other members of the Government, selections by the Fifth Regiment Band, which will culminate the convention, will be on the air.

MUTINEERS ON SHIP GUARDED

Armed Vessel Sent From Ceylon to Aid Liner From Australia Which Called

Colombo, Ceylon, June 21.—The Australian Commonwealth liner Jervis Bay reported by wireless to Colombo this morning that there was a mutiny aboard.

Threats had been made to set the vessel on fire, the message said.

An hour after the message was received a party of marines was sent to board the liner to assist in the mutiny.

A wireless message from the Jervis Bay yesterday stated the crew of the vessel was having trouble with "eight desperate stowaways."

VOLUNTEER GUARDS
The British cruiser Enterprise, stationed in the East Indies, this morning received the following message from the captain of the liner:

"Situation is serious. Earliest removal of eight men, under hatchway desired. They are dangerous. Mutiny and incendiarism tried. Passengers alarmed. Constant guard on men by volunteer passengers. Speedily assist me. I am due Colombo Monday morning."

CAUSE OF TROUBLE
Although agents of the Jervis Bay here has not received any word from the liner, it was stated that when the ship called at Melbourne on this trip, members of the crew threatened to strike when it arrived at Hobart unless they were repatriated to Australia. This is the liner's last trip under articles to the Commonwealth Line.

The steamer Jervis Bay is expected to reach the Jervis Bay Saturday evening.

The Jervis Bay left Adelaide, South Australia, June 9 for London. The agents of the Commonwealth Line in London yesterday said the steamship had 600 passengers and a crew of 120.

CAR USED BY TORONTO MAIL THUGS FOUND

Bags Which Contained $124,000 Cut and Empty When Recovered To-day

$2,000 Reward Offered By Ottawa For Arrest of Six Bandits

Toronto, June 21.—The automobile used by the bandits in their sensational $125,000 hold-up of a mail car at the Union Station here early yesterday morning was found on Hudson Drive, North Toronto, this afternoon. The mail bags, which had been ripped open, were in the automobile.

A reward of $2,000 has been offered by the Postmaster-General of Canada for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the men.

It is expected the Toronto police department will offer a large reward for the arrest of the robbers. It is a quiet street in one of the better class residential districts of Toronto. The car was standing in front of a house and had been there since yesterday without attracting any attention.

Local police are strongly inclined to believe the robbery was planned by someone who had considerable information as to the operations of the railway mail service.

The robbers appear to have made a clean escape.

This morning Chief of Police D. C. Draper issued a statement which was mailed to all police authorities on the continent. It placed a small sum of money at more than $100,000 in currency besides large quantities of securities.

Reports from Ottawa indicate the post office authorities believe $124,000 to be approximately correct estimate of the amount taken.

CRITICISM IS COURT'S DUTY

Appeal Court Commissioned to Examine Judgments, Says Mr. Justice Martin

"The function of this court is to criticize judgments. That is what our commissions are issued for," Mr. Justice Martin remarked at this morning's session of the British Columbia Court of Appeal.

The remark was made when W. E. Burns submitted, on behalf of respondents in Mid-Lakes Lumber Co. et al. vs. Canadian Pacific, that the British Columbia Court of Appeal had refused to accept evidence that an engine had been in good condition. Mr. Burns stressed evidence which showed the engine to throw sparks when without spark on the wheels.

Supporting his argument that on the engine was a menace.

JUDGE CRITICIZED
Mr. Justice Martin declared most peculiar the action of the trial judge in ignoring much satisfactory evidence of the highest order, while directing attention to unsatisfactory evidence.

Chief Justice J. A. Macdonald remarked that, if the engine threw sparks, despite being properly equipped with unflashed screens approved by the Railway Board, it showed that the regulations of the Railway Board were not enough to prevent sparks. He pointed out that everyone knew that engines threw sparks, and that the atmospheric conditions prevailing were most important, the humidity of the air being vital at times.

The appeal is against damage awards given in Supreme Court in a consolidated suit brought by many parties.

EXPLANATION OF PAYMENT ASKED

At Vancouver Police Inquiry Counsel Questions Sergeant About $9 Requisition

Vancouver, June 21.—Requisition signed by Sergeant Jack Parsons for "out of pocket" expenses of $9 in connection with the Wing Ching case was produced at this morning's session of the Vancouver police inquiry when Parsons was closely examined by G. G. McGee, K.C., counsel for Police Commissioner T. W. Fletcher.

Mr. McGee asked the witness for an explanation of these expenses in view of the fact that no informant had been used in the Wing Ching case. The requisition was for $3 for a man for a day and $6 for the purchase of narcotics.

FOR INCIDENTALS
In response Parsons declared there was a system sanctioned by Deputy Chief Dan Leathbridge by which police could obtain money for incidental expenses.

"Then in this case, system or no system, you obtained $9 on the basis of these representations," Mr. McGee asked.

"No. The money was used in other work. I had to pay for informers," Mr. McGee asked.

GEN. FENG YU-HSIANG

following the capture of Peking by the Nationalist (Southern) forces in China and the resignation of Gen. Chiang Kai-shek as commander-in-chief of the Nationalist armies, is now the most prominent military figure in China. It is predicted no move of major importance in China in the immediate future will be made without the influence of Feng's views being felt. He is known as the "Christian General." The picture above is one of the latest of him taken. It has just been received in Victoria from across the Pacific.

Paris, June 21.—The French Minister of Marine has ordered the cruiser Strasbourg and the dispatch vessel Quentin Roosevelt to go to Spitzbergen immediately to help in the search for Capt. Roald Amundsen, now reported missing with the French Nobile relief seaplane piloted by Capt. Rene Guilband.

King's Bay, Spitzbergen, June 21.—There was no further news to-day regarding Capt. Roald Amundsen, the famous explorer, who took off with two pilots in a French seaplane from Tromsø, Norway, on Monday night, and has been missing since. There were all kinds of speculation about him and his companions, but no definite information whatever has reached here. There was no confirmation of yesterday's rumor that their plane was down on the pack ice.

ALASKA FEELS EARTH SHOCKS

Area Within 100 Miles of Cordova Shaken; Cruiser Durban Sends Report

Cordova, Alaska, June 21.—Three distinct series of earth tremors were felt to-day throughout an area within 100 miles of Cordova. The shocks were felt at 3:30 a.m., 8:30 a.m. and 9:30 a.m.

The British light cruiser Durban, at sea in Prince William Sound, recorded violent disturbances at 8:30 o'clock between Montagu and the Hinchinbrook Islands.

The Durban canny, near La Touche, reported a ship at the dock there and buildings were shaken. Several avalanches in the mountains were observed.

Washington, June 21.—The seismograph at Georgetown University began registering earthquake shocks at 5:56 a.m. to-day and continued to register for four hours. The shocks were of considerable intensity, reaching their maximum at 6:30 o'clock. The distance of the centre was estimated at more than 7,000 miles from here.

F. Napier Denison reports two earthquakes recorded on the seismograph at the Cordova Meteorological Observatory this morning. One was at 2:33 and a distance of 5,700 miles away, probably originating to the southeast. The record lasted two hours. A severe earthquake was recorded at 8:31 this morning, 1,400 miles away, probably in Alaska, for a duration of three hours. Two other small earthquakes recorded made four in twenty-four hours.

TOWN IN MEXICO SWEEPED BY SEA

El Pasco, Texas, June 21.—Earthquakes are reported continuing in the vicinity of Tuxtepec, in the State of Oaxaca, Mexico, where 181 shocks have been recorded in the last few days.

Chachabua, a seaport town, was totally engulfed with waves swept inland more than 5,000 yards during tremors. All houses in Chachabua were destroyed and the inhabitants fled for their lives to the mountains, according to messages from Mexico City.

Clearings Grow $100,000 a Day

Victoria bank clearings for the week ending at noon to-day, showed a gain at the rate of $100,000 for every business day, according to the totals issued by the Clearing House at noon.

The figures are:
Total for week ending to-day, $2,895,200.
For same week last year, $2,337,878.

No Word Has Come From Famous Explorer and His Two Pilots Since They Left Norway Last Monday to Search for Nobile Party; Men at King's Bay, Spitzbergen, Can Offer No Explanation

Paris, June 21.—The French Minister of Marine has ordered the cruiser Strasbourg and the dispatch vessel Quentin Roosevelt to go to Spitzbergen immediately to help in the search for Capt. Roald Amundsen, now reported missing with the French Nobile relief seaplane piloted by Capt. Rene Guilband.

King's Bay, Spitzbergen, June 21.—There was no further news to-day regarding Capt. Roald Amundsen, the famous explorer, who took off with two pilots in a French seaplane from Tromsø, Norway, on Monday night, and has been missing since. There were all kinds of speculation about him and his companions, but no definite information whatever has reached here. There was no confirmation of yesterday's rumor that their plane was down on the pack ice.

London, June 21.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen to-day said anxiously over Roald Amundsen and his companion who set out by seaplane to aid in the rescue work and disappeared, was growing at King's Bay, Spitzbergen.

It was possible a relief expedition would be sent out to search for them.

Oso, Norway, June 21.—A local newspaper, commenting on the disappearance of the French seaplane with Capt. Roald Amundsen aboard on its search for the men of the Polar dirigible Italia, stated Capt. Amundsen said before he left that he was especially interested in the missing party of seven which drifted away with the balloon part of the airship. The paper thought it was possible Capt. Amundsen and his companions had flown straight to the east and landed on the sea.

SHIP TO GO TO NOBILE'S CAMP

Opinion at Spitzbergen Is Ice-breaker Needed to Rescue Arctic Explorers

King's Bay, Spitzbergen, June 21.—From conditions which General Umberto Nobile reported around the camp of himself and his five companions on the ice off Northeast Land it was thought at King's Bay to-day that the most practical way to effect the rescue of the party would be for a powerful Russian icebreaker to force its way north and take the men aboard.

The icebreaker Krassin is expected here June 26.

FOG INTERFERES
The week of fine weather which had prevailed at Spitzbergen was succeeded to-day by foggy conditions which it was feared would prevent Major Maddalena, Italian aviator, from starting out again in search of the party of seven men and three missing men who originally formed part of the Nobile group and who drifted away with the bag of the Italia.

The Swedish expedition at Virgo Bay is all ready for a flight to Mossel Bay, northern Spitzbergen, as soon as the weather is favorable. The airman intended to centre their search for the party of Dr. Malmgren, Swedish scientist, Captain Mariano and Captain Zeppi.

PLANE PLAN
London, June 21.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen said Major Maddalena, who dropped provisions to General Nobile and his party yesterday, intended to make an attempt to rescue them from the polar ice with his plane to-day.

Major Maddalena was expected to fly to the place where Nobile and his five companions are encamped. He would drop smoke bombs to them, it was said. (Continued on page 3)

EX-CROWN PRINCE DIVORCED TO-DAY

Princess Helen Given Decree Against Former Heir to Roumanian Throne

Bucharest, Roumania, June 21.—The Bucharest court has granted a divorce to Princess Helen from former Crown Prince Carol of Roumania.

Princess Helen, deserted wife of Ex-Crown Prince Carol, filed a formal petition for divorce two weeks ago, the suit being instituted in the Appeal Court, at Bucharest. The princess, who was married to the then heir to the Roumanian throne in 1921, applied for the divorce because of "profound affronts offered, and desertion."

The petition also said Carol's present conduct was an offence to the royal court.

Carol did not oppose the divorce. Regarding the boy King Michael, Princess Helen's petition specified that the court should make no order for his custody, as his status had been settled.

MINISTERS GATHER TO LAUNCH COAST CAMPAIGN TO-NIGHT

EXPECTS SOLID NORTH

Mr. Pattullo came here from Prince Rupert to-day radiating optimism over Liberal prospects in the north. The northern ridings will vote solidly Liberal in this election as they have done in the past, Mr. Pattullo predicted after a tour which took him into many northern districts. Mr. Pattullo said the northern country is looking exceptionally well and making solid progress.

"I am inclined to think," said the minister, "that the South does not fully realize that it has a gold mine in the North. The great bulk of all merchandise used in the North comes from Southern British Columbia and amounts to millions of dollars annually."

Mr. Pattullo will spend a week here before returning to his old constituency of Prince Rupert.

McPHERSON RENOMINATED

Dugald McPherson, member of the last Legislature for Grand Forks-Greenwood, and known as one of the ablest private members in the House, was renominated at an enthusiastic convention in Midway last night.

Before delivering a speech of acceptance Mr. McPherson asked the convention to pass a resolution urging the Federal Government to reconsider the cancellation of fruit dumping duties. This was passed.

MACKENZIE SPEAKS

Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Provincial Secretary, delivered a vigorous speech in which he dissected the Conservative Party programme, as announced by Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative Leader. Mr. Mackenzie was given an enthusiastic reception.

GILLIS CHOSEN

At the same time Liberals of Yale were nominating Dr. J. J. Gillis of Merritt at Spence's Bridge. Dr. Gillis is one of the most prominent men in the riding and is expected to hold the seat which Premier MacLean is vacating to run in Victoria.

The Premier attended the convention after motoring down from Quesnel and delivered an address in which he traced the record of the Government.

PREMIER IN VANCOUVER

The Premier arrived in Vancouver this morning to attend the Liberal nominating convention to-night. Immediately on his arrival he met Hon. Dugald Donaghy, Minister of Finance, and Brigadier-General V. W. Odium, and conferred with them.

The Premier will be the chief speaker at to-night's nominating convention here. He will discuss the manifesto recently issued by Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative Leader.

So far as can be learned no new figures have appeared on the horizon for the ticket to be chosen by the convention. Hon. Dugald Donaghy, Brigadier-General V. W. Odium, former M.P.P., Nicol Thompson, Alderman H. E. Al-

PILCHARDS APPEAR EARLIER ON COAST THIS YEAR; SEINER AT UCLUELET HAS GOOD HAUL

With a catch of thirty-five tons yesterday, the seine boat Allema, operated for the Anderson Fisheries at Ucluelet, opened the pilchard fishing season on the West Coast of Vancouver Island this year, according to a report received in the city to-day from Ucluelet. This is said to be the earliest the pilchards have been caught on the coast in several years, and will serve to speed up completion of new plants in time for the heavy catches of the season. Three or four new reduction units are being installed at different points for operation this season which will make a total of about twenty-two plants engaged in pilchard reduction on the West Coast. The value of last year's pilchard catch was close to the $3,000,000 mark.

mond and Mrs. Paul Smith are said to be very generally supported by the city associations, while others whose names are likely to be proposed are Ben Steel, F. W. Sterling, J. Pitcairn Hogg, F. R. Stewart, Mrs. Daniel M. McKay, Col. John F. Desks and J. E. W. Thompson, former M.P.P.

BURNABY NOMINATION
Burnaby Liberal Association also will nominate to-night. Four names are prominently mentioned: Reeve A. K. MacLean, Dr. A. McIvor, Councillor Richard Wilson and Capt. George Grant.

South Vancouver Liberals will nominate on Monday night. The names of Mrs. R. N. Murray and Messrs. C. W. Peatt and W. B. Robinson will be placed in nomination.

POOLEY ATTACKS BOOK

In a speech at Cowichan this week

R. H. Pooley, Conservative House Leader in the Legislature, attacked the Government's booklet, "British Columbia's Progress," which he called political propaganda. Apparently, he said, the Kings Printer was so busy turning out this propaganda that the work of printing voters' lists had to be farmed out to Liberal printing firms.

Mr. Pooley's supporters have organized, with Capt. William Cox as campaign manager. Committees to handle the Conservative campaign in Esquimalt were named at a meeting of the "Sailors' Club" last night, when Mr. Pooley spoke.

NASH presents a New and Finer Motor Car

New Twin Ignition Motor New Salon Bodies

"The three new Nash Series, which are being introduced everywhere today, achieve the ambition of my manufacturing career.

"They represent an entirely new type of motor car, priced moderately, but offering you all the beauty and quality and performance heretofore exclusive to very expensive automobiles.

"To create such a car we had to develop an entirely new type of design and invest over $2,500,000 in dies and machinery alone.

"Both the Salon bodies and the high compression motors which power these new models exemplify the most radically modern advancement in body craftsmanship and engineering.

"Naturally space precludes the full listing of all features but I do want to draw your attention to a number of the outstanding attractions such as:—

"—Twin ignition, high compression, Bohnalite aluminum alloy pistons with Invar-struts, 7-bearing crankshaft with hollowed crankpins, Bijur centralized chassis lubrication, Houdaille and Lovejoy shock absorbers, Biflex-Nash bumpers and bumperettes, chrome plating over nickel for all exterior metal ware, double-drop frame, one-piece Salon fenders and longer wheelbase lengths.

"This new-type engineering of the '400' motors makes them by far the best performing cars I have ever built.

"I don't think anyone will ever want to use all the speed and power they deliver.

"Equipment is absolutely complete at the factory list price and you need buy no extras except a spare tire.

"If my judgment is worth anything you will find it well worth while today to examine this new automobile development with the greatest care."

KIWANIANS AID PLANE SERVICES

Seattle, June 21.—"Aviation has sprung up so suddenly and is advancing so rapidly that it seems impossible to control its progress in any scientific manner," said J. L. Johnson of Appleton, Wis., chairman of the Kiwanis committee on public affairs for the United States, in addressing the Kiwanis International Committee here today on the building of airports and landing fields, and the proper air-markings for cities.

"So many inquiries have been received from Kiwanis clubs in the United States and Canada for scientific information about aeronautics that special bulletins have been sent to our 1,750 clubs," Mr. Johnson said. "Aviation has become a world-wide problem. In the past year, fifty Kiwanis clubs have sponsored landing fields and airports."

"What is needed immediately is an educational programme. The subject of aviation is a new one, and has only recently come into prominence so far as the general public is concerned."

The present need of most cities, Mr. Johnson advised, is to secure proper sites for landing fields, to have airports municipally owned to prevent monopoly, and the financial expenditures to fit in with the plans of city planning commissions.

INVERSHIN WINS CUP AT ASCOT

Ascot, Eng., June 21.—Invershin, owned by Reid Walker, won the famous Gold Cup today, the third day of Royal Ascot Week.

E. de St. Alary's Pégase was second and Marshall Field's Cinq-a-Sept was third. Ten ran.

Invershin won by a length and there were three lengths between second and third. The betting was 100-8, even and 25-1.

Invershin is by Invincible out of Ajanta.

The cup is valued at £500 with £2,500 added. The distance is two and one-half miles.

had to pay for their beds, meals and the like from time to time," said the witness.

"The city analyst's records show," said Mr. McGee, "that you had no case for four months before this one, or for two months afterwards."

"Perhaps not," said the witness.

"Then, we'll take every case where you put in such requests, and I want you to tell me how the money was expended and on what case."

Sgt. Parsons listened while Mr. McGee read several "Reds" from the records. He stated he could explain them.

"They represented general expenses incidental to my work," the witness swore.

"All right, Parsons. If that's your explanation, we'll let it go at that," Mr. McGee replied.

SIGNATURE ADMITTED

Before the requisition was read into the record Mr. McGee asked the witness if the handwriting and signature were his.

Sgt. Parsons stated they were.

R. Rowe Holland, counsel for the Police-men's Union, requested permission to examine it.

"Here's one case where we've got him cold," Mr. McGee said. "He has my sympathy. He can take all the time he wants."

Mayor L. D. Taylor was not present at this morning's session as he was attending a meeting of the Greater Vancouver Water District, of which he is chairman.

SHIP TO GO TO NOBILE'S CAMP

and the marooned men would use these to indicate the best place for him to land. Then the aviator would try to come down on the ice and take them off.

DIRECTIONS BY RADIO

King's Bay, Spitzbergen, June 21 (Copyright by the Associated Press).—Cheered by the good pounds of provisions dropped yesterday at their camp on the ice off Northeast Land by Major Maddalena, General Umberto Nobile today sent further radio directions for the rescue of himself and his five companions.

The general and the men with him, who have been short of food and in difficult straits ever since May 25, when the dirigible Italia met with disaster on its return from the North Pole, were in wireless communication with the base ship Clitta di Milano here concerning the present situation. Gen. Nobile gave instruction about what further procedure should be followed in rescuing the party and gave details as to what were the conditions on the ice where he and his companions are stranded and the exact position of the camp.

GRATITUDE VOICED

General Nobile expressed his gratitude to Major Maddalena and the assistant pilot of the big seaplane, as well as to Major Mercanti, director-general of the Italian Aviation Department, who organized the relief expedition and gave up his place in the plane so that more fuel might be carried. In fact the first words of Nobile's message were:

"I kiss and embrace the two fliers and Mercanti."

During his expedition yesterday Major Maddalena was accompanied by Morigato Cagna, pilot, and a mechanic. They dropped small parachutes to which were attached packages containing spirit lamps, rubber boots, gloves, guns, cigarettes and food.

The seaplane was navigated by the sealer Hobby's wireless, by means of which Gen. Nobile instructed the fliers to go a little to the right, then to the left, and so on.

SIGNALLED WITH FLAGS

After the return of the plane to King's Bay last night Major Maddalena said the Nobile party had signalled to him with flags. He expressed keen regret his plane had been unable to take them aboard.

He said he had seen nothing of Capt. Roald Amundsen or his pilot.

FIRE-SIX BULLETS

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, June 21.—Inflamed by frequent interruptions and the refusal of the opposition to withdraw insulting words, Puniy Raditch, Radical deputy, drew a revolver during a session of the National Assembly here yesterday and fired all six rounds into the group of opposition members. Paul Raditch, nephew of Stefan Raditch, the Peasant leader, was killed. Stefan Raditch himself was seriously wounded. The Croat deputy, Dr. Basaritchek, was wounded and died on the way to a hospital. Dr. Fernar and two other deputies, Ormand and Jovanitch, also received bullet wounds of a dangerous nature.

This was the culmination of fierce controversies and hand-to-hand fighting which recently had taken place in the Yugoslav Parliament.

CONVENTION FIGHT

Parliament had scarcely opened yesterday when an opposition led by Stefan Raditch began its obstructionist tactics against the Government's legislation, in the forefront of which is ratification of the Nettuno convention with Italy.

At the height of the angry debate Stefan Raditch, turning to the Government benches and shaking his finger, shouted:

"You are not men. You are swine."

SCENE OF TUMULT

There were roars of "withdraw," and Deputy Puniy Raditch, one of the most vehement defenders of the Government's policy, rushed at the speaker, pointing a revolver. The House was thrown into a wild tumult. Paul Raditch, who leaped to his uncle's assistance, fell dead from a bullet as he attempted to throw himself across the body of the already wounded man.

Members of the Raditch party attempted to seize the slayer, but before they could do so, Raditch shot Fernar and Basaritchek and two others.

Profiting by the uproar, Raditch dashed out of the Parliament building.

Seized, Croatia, June 21.—Ten persons were injured, four seriously, in a clash between police and demonstrators who had gathered in sympathy with the Raditch followers. A crowd of thousands followed the slayer, killed and wounded in yesterday's shooting in Belgrade.

Croatia, which is the home district of the Raditch group, is much excited over the shooting and indignation meetings are being held everywhere.

must be more than thirty years of age. The whole country is taken as one constituency and the voting is by proportional representation.

ENOUGH RAILLOTS
At the last election in 1925 there were seventy-six candidates and the voting papers were as large as a newspaper page. Men of eminence were defeated and several persons unknown outside their own district secured election. Only twenty-three per cent of the voters went to the polls.

ELECTION NEXT FALL
The triennial election will come again this Autumn and unless legislation is passed similar results are anticipated. To change the methods of election require amendment of the constitution, which can be done by ordinary legislation within eight years of the establishment of the state, but will afterwards involve great difficulty in alternative years, hence the desire for urgency. The Government introduced in the Dail several bills to change the constitution in regard to the Senate elections. They would abolish altogether popular election and prescribe that the senators shall be elected from a selected panel of suitable persons by the members of the Dail and the Senate, voting together, by proportional representation. They propose to reduce the minimum age of a senator from thirty-five years to thirty.

Samuel de Valera desires to abolish the Senate altogether, but holds that while it lasts the people should have a direct voice in determining its membership.

HAS NO REAL POWER
The Senate, however constituted, has no real power. It can debate, reject or amend bills passed by the Dail, but unless the Dail chooses to accept its decisions the bills become law over its head after the lapse of 270 days. Ministers, who are now exclusively members of the Dail, have the right of addressing the Senate.

It is now proposed to enable senators

AN OMINOUS BENEDECTION

THE ACTIVE PARTICIPATION OF
Senators G. H. Barnard and R. F. Green in the opposition convention Tuesday night cannot be regarded as a fortunate augury for the candidates who were chosen to carry the opposition banner in the present election. From it we are entitled to assume that the party led by Dr. Tolmie in this province is in close sympathy with the attitude adopted by the two senators at Ottawa towards certain important questions affecting British Columbia; otherwise those gentlemen would not have figured so prominently in the proceedings.

In their remarks on Tuesday night both senators ran true to form. Senator Barnard is reported to have said that we are spending too much on education, that it costs nine to ten dollars a head more to educate a child in British Columbia than it does in any other province. We do not think the Senator has been misquoted on this point. Beyond doubt he believes we are spending too much on education, and if he had his way there would be much less expenditure under that head. Less education for the children of people of limited means with special opportunities for children of wealthy people evidently would suit the Senator perfectly, and would gratify his zeal for economy in the administration of the affairs of this province. Subsidiary to that principle, the accuracy of his assertion that it costs nine to ten dollars more to educate a child in British Columbia than in any other province probably would be regarded by him as a minor consideration. Yet his assertion is incorrect. The cost of educating a child in British Columbia is $74.59; in Alberta it is $86.00, in Saskatchewan it is $97.80. These figures speak for themselves—just as the Senator does.

But Senator Barnard's zeal for economy in British Columbia, outraged by the cost of preparing our children for the duties of citizenship, was proof against shock at the amount of money expended in the consumption of liquor. Indeed, his vote in the Senate in three consecutive sessions for the rejection of the measure to prevent private importation of liquor into this province entitles us to draw the conclusion that he did not think the public was spending enough on liquor. The result of this vote of himself and his colleagues was the encouragement of bootlegging, with its train of crime, on a large scale. It was a vote in the interests of the distillers, although the Legislature of the Senator's own province thrice urged the passage of the measure. Are we to assume that Senator Barnard thinks that the cost of education in British Columbia should be reduced for the benefit of the distillers? The expenditure on education in British Columbia last year was $9,172,728. Money spent on liquor last year amounted to about $16,000,000, which of course, did not include the proceeds of bootlegging. These figures speak for themselves.

If the Senator's zeal for economy lapsed when the liquor importation bill was being voted upon at Ottawa, it underwent a miraculous revival when the old age pensions bill came up for consideration. He and his colleagues gave that measure short shrift in 1926 when it first came before them, and they only approved of it in 1927 in response to the pressure of public opinion and the fact that an election was looming up on the horizon in British Columbia. No distillers are likely to need old age pensions. However, on this question the Senator had the sympathetic support of the opposition in the Legislature, judging by the attitude of Mr. Pooley. Generous education facilities for the young and help for the old apparently are much too radical for the Senator and his political associates both at Ottawa and in British Columbia.

There is one group of elderly people, however, who can depend upon the Senator's support when their pensions are being voted. That is the Senate itself, every member of which receives $4,000 annually for life, plus traveling expenses and other odds-and-ends for less than a month's real work a year.

With such a benediction the four city candidates of the opposition party began their political course on Tuesday night, thereby associating themselves with the most reactionary elements in the public life of this country—whose slogan ought to be "millions for distillers, but less education and no old age pensions."

VANCOUVER'S "BEST CITIZEN"

IN HONORING MR. WILLIAM C. DITmars, by conferring upon him the "best citizen" medal for this year, the Vancouver branch of the Native Sons of British Columbia will be honoring itself. Nor do we suppose there will be any aching hearts as a result of the choice which the organization has made, for Mr. Dittmars for many years has not only been a successful man of business and public-spirited citizen, he has been popular with people in all walks of life. His ardent Canadianism found reward in the honor which the Vancouver Canadian Club extended to him when it made him its president, his service in that body, of course, dating back many years. Mr. Dittmars also has risen to the highest rank in Freemasonry, a tribute to his unflinching allegiance to the craft. He numbers many Victorians among his friends and they will join in congratulating him upon the honor which the Native Sons of British Columbia now is about to confer upon him.

OUR GROWING PAYROLL

LAST YEAR THE INDUSTRIAL PAY-
roll of British Columbia amounted to $177,522,758. In 1917 the total was $78,000,000. Here is convincing evidence of ten years of solid progress.

It also is interesting to compare the total industrial payroll of Greater Vancouver, the rest of the Mainland, and Vancouver Island, for the years 1924 and 1927. The figures are:

	1924	1927
Greater Vancouver ..	$54,449,747.95	$65,470,369.30
Rest of Mainland ..	67,992,347.36	77,399,922.55
Vancouver Island ..	28,595,220.99	34,652,442.59
Totals ..	$151,037,316.20	$177,522,758.14

How steadily the Province has advanced industrially ever since 1917, moreover, is shown by the following returns: From $78,000,000 ten years ago the total jumped in 1918 to $102,000,000, in 1920 to $124,000,000, in 1922 to $126,000,000, in 1924 to $151,000,000, in 1925 to $160,000,000, in 1926 to $173,000,000, and, as already noted, in 1927 to $177,522,758.

The foregoing figures indicate that our progress has been steady—the right and lasting kind of progress—with every prospect of its being maintained. The showing of 1927 is all the more remarkable because that year followed two years of outstanding industrial expansion. If we had done nothing more than held our own last year, there would have been nothing to worry about; but an increase of more than four and one-half millions should be highly gratifying to the taxpayers of the Province.

As the Vancouver Daily Province very properly points out, the enlarged payroll is proof that British Columbia is expanding industrially. It speaks of Vancouver's progress in this regard as follows:

Often, about Vancouver, when the great number of new houses is noted, one hears the question, "What are all these new people finding to do?" The payroll figures are the answer. We are developing new industries or enlarging old ones, and the new people are a part of the development. We are developing our resources. The record payroll of the metal mining industry and the increased activity in smelting are indications of that. These allied industries, metal mining and smelting, have more than doubled their wage payments in five years.

An increasing payroll is one of the very best evidence of industrial health. It is evidence of enterprise, and industry and enterprise. It is evidence of thrift, too, since the employment of labor presupposes a supply of capital, and capital is the result of saving. British Columbia, having attained a payroll which is substantial for her population, can not employ herself better than in seeking deliberately to make that payroll grow.

In the words of Attorney-General Manson, the policy of the MacLean Government is to keep Labor contented and Capital unafraid, and the continually growing industrial payroll is evidence of the fact that this policy has worked well. It is the intention of the Administration to "make that payroll grow." It has shown that it knows how to do it. That is only one of the arguments in favor of its endorsement at the polls next month.

OUR MOTOR CAR INVESTMENT

THOSE WHO SOMETIMES ALLOW themselves to be worried over the activities of a few misguided gentlemen who profess to think that Russia's present system of government is the ideal one should note a statement just issued from Ottawa that for every twelve men, women and children in Canada there is one privately-owned automobile, British Columbia's ratio being one for every nine persons.

Apart from the fact that "red" propaganda is wasted effort in a country like this, where the standards of living are higher than anywhere else in the world, a nation of home owners and automobile owners never will permit its property to be jeopardized by experiments in government of the Moscow type. It would be difficult to find a more contented people than our own anywhere. They are prosperous, too, and that is a formidable obstacle to the disturber and the agitator.

BRIDGE MADE EASY

By W. W. WENTWORTH
(Abbreviations: A—ace; K—king; Q—queen; J—jack; X—any card lower than 10).

OPEN BIDS

Here are illustrative hands and explanations of what opening bids should be made:

1—Spades A X X X
Hearts A X X X
Diamonds A X X X
Clubs X

This hand is too strong to pass. No trump is inadvisable on account of the singleton. If you bid a major suit, you may not encourage partner if he holds normal support for you in the major. The most advisable bid is one diamond, as it may encourage a game-going declaration.

2—Spades A J X X
Hearts K X X
Diamonds K Q X
Clubs A J X

The hand contains a fair spade bid. The cards are perfectly distributed for a no trump—4-3-3-3, with all suits stopped and aces and kings for either major. A no trump is most advisable as it may encourage the most desirable major suit declaration if not played at no trump.

3—Spades X X
Hearts A Q 10 X
Diamonds A K X X X
Clubs X X

This hand contains only two suits stopped and two worthless doubletons, making it inadvisable to bid no trump. The hand contains a sound heart bid.

4—Spades A J X X
Hearts K X X
Diamonds X
Clubs A K Q X X

The hand contains a weak spade suit. No trump is inadvisable on account of singleton. Having support for either major, bid a club to encourage bidding by partner.

5—Spades A 10
Hearts X X X
Diamonds J 10 X X X
Clubs A X

This hand contains support in both majors with every suit stopped. A no trump bid offers the best prospects for game. Note the 10 and 9 in the spade suit—such cards are of very great value in a hand. The expert establishes them where the average player fails. You should recognize padding of this kind and endeavor to utilize it.

6—Spades A J X X
Hearts X X X
Diamonds A K J X X
Clubs X X

No trump is inadvisable on account of two worthless doubletons. Bid one diamond in preference to a weak spade suit to encourage bidding as a spade bid may shut out bidding.

By W. W. WENTWORTH
(Abbreviations: A—ace; K—king; Q—queen; J—jack; X—any card lower than 10).

Here are illustrative hands and explanations of what opening bids should be made:

1—Spades A X X X
Hearts A X X X
Diamonds A X X X
Clubs X

This hand is too strong to pass. No trump is inadvisable on account of the singleton. If you bid a major suit, you may not encourage partner if he holds normal support for you in the major. The most advisable bid is one diamond, as it may encourage a game-going declaration.

2—Spades A J X X
Hearts K X X
Diamonds K Q X
Clubs A J X

The hand contains a fair spade bid. The cards are perfectly distributed for a no trump—4-3-3-3, with all suits stopped and aces and kings for either major. A no trump is most advisable as it may encourage the most desirable major suit declaration if not played at no trump.

3—Spades X X
Hearts A Q 10 X
Diamonds A K X X X
Clubs X X

This hand contains only two suits stopped and two worthless doubletons, making it inadvisable to bid no trump. The hand contains a sound heart bid.

4—Spades A J X X
Hearts K X X
Diamonds X
Clubs A K Q X X

The hand contains a weak spade suit. No trump is inadvisable on account of singleton. Having support for either major, bid a club to encourage bidding by partner.

5—Spades A 10
Hearts X X X
Diamonds J 10 X X X
Clubs A X

This hand contains support in both majors with every suit stopped. A no trump bid offers the best prospects for game. Note the 10 and 9 in the spade suit—such cards are of very great value in a hand. The expert establishes them where the average player fails. You should recognize padding of this kind and endeavor to utilize it.

6—Spades A J X X
Hearts X X X
Diamonds A K J X X
Clubs X X

No trump is inadvisable on account of two worthless doubletons. Bid one diamond in preference to a weak spade suit to encourage bidding as a spade bid may shut out bidding.

DELIGHTFUL FETE AT "BENVENUTO" DREW HUNDREDS

Mrs. Butchart Gracious Hostess to Women's Canadian Club Yesterday

Glorious Summer weather and a setting of incomparable beauty formed the irresistible combination which drew over 500 visitors to "Benvenuto," Tod Inlet, yesterday afternoon, when, through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart, the Women's Canadian Club held their annual garden party.

The heat of the last few days has brought the roses to perfection, and although many of the climbers are not yet out, the standard varieties with their luxuriant bloom formed an unforgettable picture against the background of delphinium in every shade of blue, campanula and other early summer blossoms.

The emerald lawn with their fringe of magnificent trees were dotted with people throughout the afternoon, and the sunken garden and the Japanese pleasure ground proved popular rendezvous.

Afternoon tea was served in the Italian garden, members of the executive being assisted by a number of young girls in serving the delicious refreshments.

Attractive programme

Zala's three-piece orchestra was encoined on the verandah and played throughout the afternoon, also accompanying the delightful programme of dancing furnished by the pupils of Miss Violet Powkes, while Piper Angus Munro of the 16th Canadian Scottish Regimental Pipe Band, accompanied Miss Nancy Ferguson and her pupils in their spirited exhibition of Scottish dance, the skirts of the pipes swaying at their best in the open air.

The dances given by the little pupils of Miss Powkes included an eccentric bowery dance by little Georgia Brown, a cotillon and a daisy, a graceful scarf dance by Genevieve Little, Joyce Whitehead, Berna Waring and Peggy Macdonnell, and a colorful ballet by Joyce Whitehead, Genevieve Little, Peggy Macdonnell, Joyce Finch, Helen Peden, Betty MacLean, Gladys Bailey, Helen Frame, Eugene Doherty, Valentine Harlow, June Maynard, Georgina Dowdall, Maryann Peterson and Lauren Grute. Tiny Mavis Baker regaled the audience with her solo dance, "Morning."

Miss Nancy Ferguson in Highland tartan and wearing her many medals, gave a graceful exhibition of the sword dance, and the Misses Maryann Peterson, June Scunrah, Betty Webber and Gwen Dewar were warmly applauded for their spirited dancing of the "Reel of Tulloch" and other Scottish dances.

In the little garden enclosure adjoining the house, many delved into the future with the assistance of Mrs. W. Finmore, Mrs. de Blaquiere, Mrs. E. Lorenz and Mrs. M. Freeston, thus providing a popular diversion.

PRETTY WEDDING AT FIRST CHURCH

A profusion of Summer flowers, including an archway of roses and sweet peas, decorated the front of the First Church for the wedding last night of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Strang, 3148 Jackson Street, and Mr. Alfred, native son of Mr. and Mrs. Stafford of Northumberland, England. Rev. Dr. Wilson officiated in the presence of a large congregation.

The bride was beautifully gowned in ivory tulle and lace, made in bouffant style. She wore a veil of embroidered net over a coronet of orange blossoms and carried a silver bouquet of Ophelia roses, swansons and maidenhair fern.

Mrs. F. Freer was matron of honor and wore a gown of blue and white, skirt fashioned with three deep flounces. Her picture hat was of blue georgette with touches of pale yellow. She carried delphiniums and pale pink gladioli.

The two bridesmaids, Mrs. F. Middleton and Miss Anne McKenzie, wore similar frocks of mauve and green, and carried bouquets of white and pink ribbon. Their bouquets were of mauve and mauve sweet peas and fern. Mr. Fred Freer was best man, and the ushers were Mr. S. Galloway, Mr. R. Milburn and Mr. F. Middleton.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. Sydney Sherratt sang "I Love You Truly."

After the ceremony a reception was held in the Orange Hall, where the happy couple received their many friends, assisted by Mrs. Strang, gowned in black Canton crepe trimmed with touches of green and fawn and hat to match, and a pink choker. The supper table was decorated with sweet peas and pink tulle with tall pink tapers in silver candlesticks and a peach with the three-tiered bride cake. The many beautiful wedding gifts were on display.

The bride and groom left on the night boat for the Mainland, and will motor to the Sound cities. On their return they will spend the Summer months at Cadboro Bay, later making their home in Victoria. For traveling, Mrs. Stafford wore a smart georgette frock of coral georgette and lace, hand-embroidered in beads, a green and white hat and a small black and white potter wool coat trimmed with fur.

EUROPEAN FOLK SONGS STIRRING

Ukrainians and Swedes in Spirited Performance at Festival

Winnipeg, Man., June 21.—The high point of the new Canadian folk song and handicraft festival so far was reached last night in the choral singing of a Ukrainian chorus of seventy voices in a number of stirring ballads and songs, and in Ukrainian and Hungarian folk dances, the dash and spirit of which were a continual delight to the large audiences gathered to watch them. Both afternoon and evening performances were colorful spectacles, and the standard of artistry set by the performers was astonishingly high.

The national costumes of the various groups lent brilliant color to the ensemble, the Ukrainian chorus in vivid coloring being an outstanding example. Their singing was dynamic in force with volume and clarity of tone in the various four part numbers such as is seldom heard, while it lacked nothing in delicacy of shading and fine balance of parts. The afternoon concert at the Royal Alexandra Hotel featured the folk songs and dances of Sweden, Iceland, Norway and Denmark. The Bellman quartette, composed of two men and two women, opened with national airs and followed with three songs by Bellman, the Robert Burns of Sweden. All these were sung with spirit and with that suspicion of homesickness that renders them so appealing. Bellman, like Burns, was content to take the most work-a-day matters for his poems, and to adapt them to airs long known by everyday folk.

In the Icelandic group, Paul Bardal and Mrs. S. K. Hall, both of Winnipeg, were the soloists. Bardal's fine baritone carried the audience through a mythical wilderness of saga, legend and song. He was particularly effective in "Murchon's Tooth" and "A Sprenging," the latter depicting the murder of a sheep rustler in the Icelandic bad lands. Mrs. Hall's liquid soprano made one forget the strange harshness of Icelandic, which boasts a treasury of "fast sonar" beyond the dreams of Balifet Simul.

Poul Bal, the Danish baritone, is also teacher of voice in the Toronto Conservatory. His singing of "Midsummer Song" was under the influence of the students are in safe hands. The Swedish folk songs were the most vigorous of the afternoon. This group of amateurs brought down the house by their intricate movements and their high spirits.

MISS M. MALKIN WED YESTERDAY

Vancouver Girl Bride of Harry G. Marshall of India

Vancouver, June 21.—Pinks, white roses and bridal wreath decorated the approach and chancel of St. Paul's Church, making a charming setting for a quiet wedding which took place yesterday morning, when Marjorie Millett, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Malkin, was united in marriage to Mr. Harry Gerald Marshall of Nadar Estate, the High Range, near Madras, India. The ceremony took place shortly before 9 o'clock, the marriage services of the Anglican Church being performed by the Archbishop of New Westminster.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was wearing a charming imported ensemble of white crepe de Chine fashioned with pleated skirt, the long-cuffed, wide white lace collar, and a deep cream Bangkok straw, and she wore a corsage bouquet of gorgeous roses.

Mrs. Malkin's gown was of pale grey georgette in combination with self-toned lace, a close-fitting grey hat completing her toilette.

As the event was marked with the utmost simplicity, no formal reception was held following the ceremony, the guests being given refreshments at the Princess Marguerite just prior to the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall for Vancouver Island, where the honeymoon will be spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall will sail for India about the middle of August and will, on their return from Vancouver Island, spend the intervening period with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Malkin at their home in Victoria.

A TRUE BLESSING For All Nervous and Ailing

When the good Jesuit Fathers first came to Paraguay, centuries ago, they found the native Indians drinking "Mate" to conserve their strength and to restore the sick to health. Other tribes would travel hundreds of miles to Paraguay to get "Mate" to enjoy its blessings. Under the skillful hands of Jesuit Fathers immense Mate plantations were laid out which furnish us with "JOY'S YERBA MATE"—to-day. It is simply mad like tea in a teapot.

During the Great War—"JOY'S YERBA MATE"—was used for shell-shocked soldiers and other convalescents. Now used in European hospitals for Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble. Just a cup or two of this soothing drink brings a glow of youthful health and feelings of deep contentment. It calms the tired nerves and you sleep like a child. The idea that it is not a patent medicine but is to-day the National Drink of the Argentine and consumed by twenty-five million people throughout South America. Strongly endorsed by Doctors, Scientists, Pasteur Institute, Press and Clergy. ASK FOR A LARGE TIN OF "JOY'S YERBA MATE." For sale at

DIVERSITY OF MENU UNNECESSARY FOR SMALL CHILDREN

When Louise was a year old she suddenly developed an aversion to going to sleep after being tucked in bed. She lay awake for as long as a half hour, babbling to herself, occasionally calling "Mama" and then listening for an answer. One night when Mother had been listening to this small talk, Father arrived home and insisted on going in and taking her up and bringing her to the table. Here she sat on his knee, looking wide-eyed at the bright lights, held her hand out coaxingly for something to eat and received graciously a few bites of mashed potatoes from Daddy's own plate.

Altogether it was a gala occasion for Louise and she absolutely licked her lips. She cried somewhat plaintively when put to bed, but Mother agreed that it didn't seem to hurt her.

The next night Louise called more loudly for Mama, and when she heard Daddy's footsteps she let out a premonitory cry for him that brought him running. Father was tasting the joys of being wanted by his small daughter in the centre of the stage. He wasn't going to part with this advantage without a struggle.

So bed hour grew later and later, in fact it was sometimes 9 or 10 o'clock before Louise could be persuaded to go to sleep.

And this isn't all of this innocent-appearing episode. For Louise, nightly regaled with food from the family table, began to turn up her nose at her own plain food. She waved it away and demanded to be fed from Daddy's plate, thus inaugurating that usual struggle to get small son and daughter to eat what is put before them, which goes on in so many households at every meal.

Mother, who feeds Louise her simple porridges and mashed vegetables, has a tendency to feel that the baby must be tired of them, which supposition excited only in Mother's mind. For until Louise is introduced to higher flavored foods, she had not one single hanker-ing for them. Any food looks good to a hungry child, and when there is a temporary loss of appetite it is a poor and more highly flavored foods. Such methods will inevitably destroy the child's taste for plain foods.

So a small chain of circumstances, each one of which seems harmless, can lead to serious results in Louise's lack of ability to go to sleep at the proper hours, and the destruction of her natural appetite for plain and wholesome food. And all because it gives Daddy a lot of pleasure to have his small daughter at the table with him!

"Well," answered the youth, "dad has warned me again not to disgrace him, and I wish to see just how far I can go."

Schmutt Equals Par Of 71 and Leads In U.S. Open Tournament

Ohio Pro Leads in First Round, With Diegel and Leach One Stroke Behind and Bobby Jones Turning in a 73; Jones Saved by His Putter When His Wood and Iron Shots Were Off; Johnny Farrell Has Trouble; Other Scores

Chicago, June 21.—Equalling par over the treacherous No. 4 course, Leo Schmutt of Lima, Ohio, jumped into the lead in the first round of the National open golf championship to-day with a card of 36-35-71.

Scoring a 73, two over par, for his first round of the National open golf championship, Bobby Jones, twice former holder of the crown, put himself into third place among the early finishers, one stroke back of Leo Diegel, of New York, and Bill Leach, of Philadelphia. Jones got off to a sensational start in his quest for a third American open championship to-day, using his putter with magic effect to score an even par 35 for the first nine holes of the opening eighteen-hole round. His partner, Johnny Farrell, was badly off form and took 40.

SAVED BY PUTTING

Jones had a few lapses with the wood and iron, but his putting saved him nearly every time. He sank long putts for birdies on the first, fourth and eight, holing out from twenty-five feet on the latter green. Farrell, meanwhile, was having all kinds of trouble, especially with his putter, and was five strokes over par going out.

Tommy Armour, defending champion, and Archie Compston, British invader, had scores of 38 and 39 respectively at the end of the first nine holes.

Marion Wilson Shows Real Class In Match

Crushes Mrs. Dornberger, of Portland, 8 and 6 in First Round of P.N.W. Women's Championship, and the Critics Are Impressed With Her Golf; Wilhelm Sticks in Running for Men's Title by Coming From Behind and Defeating

Bob Stein

Portland, Ore., June 21.—Miss Marion Wilson, of the Victoria Golf Club, had too many shots yesterday for Mrs. Dornberger, of Portland, her opponent in the first round of the P.N.W. women's golf championship, and walked off with the match 8 and 6. Miss Wilson strengthened the opinion of many critics here that she is the one to beat in the tournament.

Miss Wilson went out in 40, which is three strokes better than her score in the qualifying round, when she shot the best nine of the field. Mrs. Dornberger could not cope with Miss Wilson's game and the match ended on the twelfth green, with Miss Wilson 8 up.

Miss Wilson is playing Mrs. Walter Pursey, of Seattle, in the second round to-day. Mrs. Pursey defeated Mrs. H. Thompson, of Portland, by a single hole.

PLAYS FINE GAME
Mrs. Kenneth Reed, of Portland, eliminated Mrs. Fern Hutchings, of Vancouver, winner of the title in the past, from further competition in this year's championship struggle.

Both women played splendid golf, but Mrs. Reed was just a bit better than her opponent and won by a 2-and-1 margin in eighteen holes, turning in a card of 81, five better than the score with which she won the match at the qualifying round.

Mrs. Hutchings had a chance to square the match at the fifteenth, but missed a three-foot putt. An over-strong spoon to the sixteenth green cost her the hole when she had been sitting pretty to win it. Then Mrs. Reed pitched stiff to the pin from a trap at the seventeenth for a half in par to end the match.

At the other end of the draw, Mrs. S. C. Sweeney, of Vancouver, defending champion, was 2 down to Mrs. Ray Hunt at the ninth, but squared the match at the sixteenth and won the remaining two holes.

Mrs. Hal Bowen, of Yakima, Wash., state runner-up of 1926, piled up an early lead on Mrs. Madeline Runyon, of Portland, and held her advantage long enough to win 2 up, on the eighteenth green.

Mrs. Ristine defeated Mrs. B. E. Eys, 3 and 2.
Miss Eleanor Brodie defeated Mrs. C. Swigert Jr., 6 and 5.
Miss Margaret Murphy defeated Mrs. Whitman, 10 and 8.

SOFTBALL

Mets 19, Primley & Ritchie 14.
Albion Stars 10, Astoria 11.

LADIES' SECTION
Axioms 24, St. Saviour's 23.
Normal School 19, Langford 18.

An effort is now being made by officials of the City Softball League to organize a league for players under the age of fifteen years. Teams wishing to enter are requested to send their applications to Ernie Stock, 8 Park Mansions, on or before Monday, June 25.

WANT EMPIRE TO WIN OLYMPICS

London, June 21. (Canadian Press Cable).—"We want to do our best to win and see that the Empire is as virile now as in the past," said Lord Rochdale, chairman of the British Olympic Association, to a gathering of Olympic teams and officials from the various dominions and representatives of sport in England at a dinner over which he presided last night.

"It matters not to us whether Canada, Australia, South Africa, New Zealand or England wins, as long as we win," he declared.

This statement was loudly applauded by the gathering.

RECORD CROWD TO SIT IN ON TITULAR BOUT

Scrap To-night Between Walker and Hudkins, Middleweights, Is Attractive

Both Fighters Confident; McLarnin Starts to Fight Way Back to Fame

Chicago, June 21.—The world's middleweight championship goes on the block at Comiskey Park to-night when Mickey Walker answers the challenge of Nebraska's wildcat of the ring, Ace Hudkins.

If weather conditions are favorable the fight which is billed to go ten rounds to a decision, is expected to attract from 30,000 to 40,000 fans and probably the largest gate receipts in the history of the middleweight division.

ACE'S FIRST SHOT

It will be Hudkins's first shot at a boxing title in the eight years of his boxing career in three divisions and while Walker was a 7-5 betting favorite, the challenger was radiant with confidence, but not more so than Walker.

Walker has been trained to centre his attack on body hoping to wear the Ace down early.

Hudkins always a dangerous puncher and more dangerous when he is hurt, will rely on his endurance and speed to wear the champion out in the early rounds and then rock him with his sleep-producing swings. He is three years younger than Walker, who is twenty-six.

New York, June 21.—"Baby-face" Jimmy McLarnin, who made himself the sensation of the lightweight division by a one-punch knockout of Sid Terry, will start on the road to comeback from the drubbing he received at the hands of Sammy Mandell, the lightweight champion, to-night, when he meets Phil McGraw in a ten-round battle at Madison Square Garden. McGraw has a record of never having been knocked out, and nothing less than a smashing victory such as he scored over Terry will bring the Vancouver boy back to his former status in the lightweight division.

Along in the early stages of the title fight it looked as if the defending champion was due for defeat, as he dropped four out of the first five holes to his Seattle opponent, but he rallied to win, however, Wilhelm worked his way into the lineup by defeating Bon J. Smith, Western amateur champion, 5 and 4.

Two up at the end of the twenty-seventh, Wilhelm flashed his most brilliant golf of the round on the final nine, taking the tenth, eleventh and twelfth holes to finish his opponent, 5 and 4, on the fourteenth.

Jack Marshall proved himself on of the dark horses of the tournament by crashing the championship aspirations of Forrest Watson, of Spokane, Northwest champion two years ago.

This match ended at the thirty-sixth hole, the only one of the day to go the full distance. Marshall was three up going to the fifteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth holes. On the final hole Watson's poorly played third shot, which was over the green, left the side open. Marshall took advantage of it, holing a long putt for a birdie four and a win on the hole.

Frank Dolp took his second step toward the title at the expense of Eddie Hogan, sensational young Riverside star. Dolp took the match, 4 and 2, but put everything he had into a comeback on the second eighteen.

The only two outsiders running are George Shaw, Los Angeles, and Alex. Duncan, Seattle. Duncan won from C. A. English, Portland, in the first round. Shaw won from W. F. Williams of Walla Walla, 7 and 6.

Dick Wilson of Victoria won by default in the first round of the first flight. The results were:
Walter Forrester, Aberdeen, defaulted to Arlo Kyle, Alderwood.
Russell Smith, Waverley, defaulted to J. H. Nichols.
Hugo Heasons, Seattle, defeated Edwin L. Neustadter, Tualatin, 2 and 1.
Roy Moe, Alderwood, defeated Ben Dolp, Alderwood, 5 and 4.

Glasgow Rangers Defeat Illinois

Chicago, June 21.—Playing in a drizzling rain, the Glasgow Rangers defeated the Illinois All-stars, 4-1, at soccer, here last night.

A Star of the West — By Jimmy Thompson

Winnipeg can certainly boast of a snappy set of track stars for the coming Canadian Olympic trials, when they can line up such material as Cyril Coaffee, a sure point winner, James Ball and Lawrie Cohen. These are a few of the track artists who will be assembled at the coming Hamilton meet. And although they may be fast, they're just a step behind the best from the States, England and Germany.

However, as the last official times of these Canadian athletes are a year old, there is no telling what they may produce in the coming trials. The Canuck century artist of the track will meet competition and will have to be more than good to hold his own at Amsterdam. Cohen is one of Winnipeg's good-looking young stars and held Dominion title in 1924. At the last Dominion championships at Varsity stadium, Toronto, he finished third to Coaffee and Fitzpatrick of Hamilton. But don't race off with the idea that the boy is done, because he has many a good mile in him yet.

Peden Again Defeats Elder and Wins Five Mile Event As Well

"Red-headed Comet" Shows Folks in Toronto Some More Fancy Riding, and Once Again Out-pedals Elder, Who Had Never Been Defeated in Pursuit Race Until Bill Met Him; Championships on Saturday

Bill Peden has fully recovered from the effects of his spill in Toronto last Saturday and won two more races yesterday. He is feeling fine and in great shape for the Dominion championships and Olympic trials on Saturday.

The following telegram was received this morning by the Sporting Editor of The Times:

"Won a pursuit race against Elder over Olympic distance. I gained 110 yards on him in 4,000 metres. Also won the five mile open. Finals on Saturday. Feeling fine."

This is the second time that Bill has beaten Elder in a pursuit race. He took his measure last Saturday in spectacular fashion and it was the first time that Elder, who was ranked as the greatest rider in this event on the continent, had suffered defeat. In order to show that he really has the measure of Elder and deserved the right to hold the title of pursuit champion of North America, Bill went out and defeated Elder over the Olympic distance of a little better than three miles.

On Saturday Bill was thrown in a jam in a five-mile race, which Elder won. Yesterday Bill kept his bike going and won the decision in five miles.

CAPS TO HAVE BUSY WEEK-END

Will Play Three Games in as Many Days; Chemainus Will Appear Here Saturday

Victoria Capitals will experience a busy week-end with three games scheduled in as many days. The Caps are going great guns at present and have lost only one game in the Vancouver Island League. The locals are sitting in top position and look like taking the Island title.

On Saturday afternoon the team will play in a league fixture against Chemainus. The Nanaimo team were scheduled to play here but a change has been made in the games and Chemainus will play here.

Chemainus have the honor of being the only club able to defeat the Capitals. The Up-Islanders, however, have dropped two games to the locals.

On Sunday the Capitals will journey to Duncan to meet the Up-Islanders in a regular league game. On their last trip to Duncan the Capitals scored a walk-over, but they expect stiffer competition this time.

Flying Cloud Wins Indian Marathon

Grant's Pass, Ore., June 21.—Flying Cloud, Karok entry of the Oregon Cave Men, finished first in the 42-mile Redwood Indian marathon this morning when he flashed across the tape at 10:30 a.m.

Mehta, fifty-eight-year-old, Zuni, seemed a certain second, being two miles out at that hour and going strong with Chief Ukiah three miles to the rear.

The marathon started at San Francisco a week ago.

ITALY WINS HOT FIVE-SET MATCH

Felketown, Eng., June 21.—Italy qualified for the European final of the Davis Cup competition to-day when Baron H. L. De Murguro and his teammate, Gastini, defeated the British doubles team of Croft-Rees and C. G. Eames in a bitter five-set match, 6-4, 3-6, 4-6, 9-7 and 7-5.

THREE LOCALS WILL PLAY IN P.N.W. TENNIS

Hocking, Radford and Jones Seek High Titles in Vancouver Next Week

Several Other Stars Who Had Intended Going Unable to Make Trip

Three Victoria tennis stars, Bud Hocking, Noel Radford and Steve Jones, leave on Sunday for Vancouver, to take part in the P.W.W. sectional tournament to be held at the Jericho Lawn Tennis Club June 25-27 inclusive.

Hocking and Radford will represent Victoria in the sectional singles and doubles. Jones is entered in the junior event.

It was originally intended to send two teams for the doubles but Marsh Gordon and Eric McGallum were unable to make the trip so Hocking and Radford will be the only senior representatives.

DID WELL LAST YEAR

It will be remembered that Bud reached the semi-final round in the singles here last year and then carried the ultimate winner, Lawrie Cohen, to four sets. As he is much improved this year he should give a good account of himself against Shields, Scott, Langley and Peers and the other cracks who will compete.

This is Radford's first attempt but on his present form he should do well although both he and Hocking will be handicapped by their lack of familiarity with the clay courts on which the matches will be played. As a doubles team they lack experience but have been pairing up well together in the last two weeks.

Jones will have his work cut out in the junior event with such stars as Nordstrom, of Seattle, and Porter and Brown, of Vancouver, entered but as he is always at his best on hard courts he stands a fair chance of reaching the finals and earning a free trip around the P.W.W. circuit.

SHIP'S TEAMS TO PLAY BALL

Teams From U.S.S. Pennsylvania Will Play Game at Park This Evening

In a regular ship's league fixture two baseball teams from the U.S.S. Pennsylvania will battle at the Royal Athletic Park to-night, commencing at 6:15 o'clock.

A number of the players from the warship have already appeared on a local diamond, having opposed the Victoria Capitals in an exhibition game on their last visit to the city.

Keen rivalry exists between the two clubs for the championship of the ship and a battle royal is anticipated this evening.

To-morrow night the sailors will meet the Victoria Capitals in an exhibition game. Norm Forbes has been selected to handle the pitching duties for the island team.

Phillies, Hungry For Games, Forget Selves And Pick Off Seven

Philadelphia Becomes Sensation of National League by Once Again Beating Brooklyn; St. Louis Cards Widen Gap on Cincinnati to Four Games; Yankees and Athletics Break Even in Double-header; Piggras Wins His Twelfth Game of Season

The ferocious Phillies, hungry for games, remain at large upon the land. Other teams may be fighting for mere pennants, but when the Philadelphia Nationals so far forget themselves as to win seven out of nine they are the news.

Not satisfied with Walter Larian's triple which outraged Dazzy Vance on Tuesday, the Phillies jumped on Elliott and McWeeny for enough hits to win the second game of the Brooklyn series yesterday, 6-2.

The St. Louis Cardinals made it ten out of eleven and increased their lead over the Cincinnati Reds to four full games by taking the opener in Chicago from the Cubs 6-2. The Reds slipped further back toward the New York Giants as the Pittsburgh Pirates made up some ground by shading Epps. Rixey 2-1.

More heartening to Pirate fans than the victory itself was the fact that Kremer achieved it. Kremer won from the Reds by the margin of one run. The Giants in Boston probably did not expect to play. They did not play in any event—for the fifth time in six scheduled days in Boston. The Giants now face eight games in four days at Braves Field in September.

NEITHER MAKE PROGRESS
After the first two skirmishes of what had been referred to as a crucial series, the Yankees and the Athletics are just where they were before it started, which the Yankees can very well afford to be, but which the Athletics can not.

Connie Mack astounded the fans by permitting old Jack Quinn to remain in the box through a five-run fusillade by the champions in the third round of the opener at the Yankee Stadium yesterday, and old Jack rewarded his master by coming through with a 10-5 victory. The veteran spitballer himself drove in the winning runs with a single in the sixth.

The Athletics reached Pennock for thirteen hits in five and one-third innings, but just were ahead, 6-5, until Moore blew up in the ninth. Old Man Quinn was in any danger. Old Man Quinn was in any danger. Old Man Quinn was in any danger.

YANKES COME TO LIFE
Piggras and Orwell made as if to go through with a pitchers' battle in the second game, but the stadium was saved from this indignity when the batters finally came to life. Grabowski slapped a homer for the Yankees in the seventh after Lauerer and Robertson had singled and Simmons repeated in behalf of the Athletics following a pass to Cobb in the eighth.

The Yanks put the game completely on the loose in the home eighth when Orwell was knocked out by a five-run apurage which clinched the game 9-3. The victory was Piggras's twelfth this season but the first of his career over the Athletics.

In the battle of the lower depths, Washington consolidated its hold on fifth place and menaced fourth by trimming the Boston Red Sox 8-0. Braxton allowed Boston just four hits, and never was in any danger.

The tail-end White Sox divided a pair with the slipping Indians in Cleveland, winning the first 6-4 and losing the second 4-2.

Yesterday's results were:
NATIONAL LEAGUE
New York-Boston, postponed, rain.
Brooklyn-Pittsburgh, 2-3.
Philadelphia-Elliott, McWeeny and Deberry; Pruett and Larian.

BALL TEAMS PLAY TO TIE

Darkness Ends Battle Between Sidney and Westholme in Tenth Inning

Capitals Hand Tilliums 10-7 Defeat; Steel Hits Home Run

Westholmes and Sidney, Commercial League ball teams, battled to a 6-all score last night. After ten innings the game was called on account of darkness. The game, played at Sidney, was one of the hardest fought in the league this year. Both clubs played hang-up ball.

The Capitals opened the scoring in the first inning when they got one run across, but Sidney tied up the count in their half of the frame. The hotelmen again took the lead in the second inning by checking home one runner.

In the fourth inning the Westholmes gave to Steel and scored three runs, showing plenty of fight and came right back in their half of the inning to score four runs and tie up the score.

Sidney took the lead for the first time in the fifth by scoring once. For the next three innings the teams played slight ball and not a run was scored.

Going to bat in the ninth on the heels of the Westholmes pulled the game out of the fire by tallying once and evening the count.

Wade Steele, who pitched for Sidney, allowed thirteen hits while he struck out nine. Pollard, on the mound for the Westholmes, was touched up for fifteen safeties and struck out four.

In the exhibition game played at the Royal Athletic Park between the Capitals and Tilliums the former won by 10-7. The Tilliums put up their best exhibition this season.

The Caps practically sewed up the game in the first inning when they slaughtered Pete Campbell's offerings and scored six runs. The Island League team added one run in the second, fourth, sixth and eighth innings.

In the third inning the Tilliums scored five runs on three hits and a couple of bobbies by the Caps' infield. A home run by Pat Steele in the fifth gave them another run and they snared their final count in the seventh.

Jack Curtis went the whole route for the Capitals and pitched fairly good ball. Pete Campbell started for the Tilliums but was yanked in the third in favor of Cann.

Sailors Fit For Hard Ring Battles To-night

U.S.S. Pennsylvania Will Have Big Contingent at the Arena to Root for Their Representatives in Bouts; Baptiste Thomas in First-class Condition to Meet Paul Dusiek, Ex-United States Navy Heavyweight Champ

Officials of the Victoria Boxing Club, stated this morning that everything was in readiness for their international fights to be held at the Arena to-night, commencing at 8.30 o'clock.

Baptiste Thomas, who is representing the club in the ten-round main event against Paul Dusiek, the blonde ex-heavyweight champion of the U.S. Navy, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from Bellingham where he has been training for the last three weeks with the Dix brothers.

Thomas went through a light workout last night with the rest of the local fighters at the Victoria West quarters and appears to be in the pink of condition. The bronze hope is full of confidence and thinks he will be able to stow away the big sailor within the ten rounds.

According to word received from the U.S.S. Pennsylvania, the crew of the big warship are showing unusual interest in to-night's bouts. There has been a heavy demand for seats and it is predicted a large percentage of the crew will be at the arena to root for their representatives.

P. O. Zvansky, who has charge of the training of the U.S. Navy fighters, states that his proteges are in the pink of condition and will put up a much superior showing to that of their last appearance here on May 26, when they competed with very little preparation.

An added attraction to-night will be the appearance of the famous Pennsylvania's Ukiole Band which will render selections during the evening. The complete programme is as follows:

Main event, ten rounds, heavyweights—Baptiste Thomas, Victoria, vs. Paul Dusiek, ex-champion of the United States Navy.

Semi-main event, four rounds, featherweights—Jackie Newman, Vancouver, vs. Barney Marat, battle fleet champion, United States Navy.

Four rounds, light-heavyweights—Ted Beale, Victoria, vs. "Silver Lining" Holloway, United States Navy.

Four rounds, middleweights—Bobby James, Seattle, vs. Johnny Lancaster, United States fleet champion.

Four rounds, lightweights—Daisy Martin, Vancouver, vs. Jack Caplinger, United States Navy.

Four rounds, featherweights—Tim Keist, Victoria, vs. Johnny Gonzales, United States Navy.

Four rounds, bandama—Albie Davies, Victoria, vs. Jim Teranick, United States Navy.

Four rounds, flyweights—Jumbo Davies, Victoria, vs. Art Manning, Vancouver, B.C.

The officials who will handle the bouts are as follows:

Referee—Member of the crew of U.S.S. Pennsylvania.

Judges—V. K. Gray and Frank Day.

Announcer—Sammy Bear, United States Navy's champion announcer.

Timekeeper—Harry Stanley.

Physician—Dr. J. P. Vye.

The ticket office at the Arena will open at 7.30 o'clock for general admission tickets.

First Lothario—What's come over you, Bill? You don't look as well dressed as you used to.

Second ditto—That's funny; they're the same clothes.

FILE CHALLENGE

ALBIE DAVIES

The promising young local scrapper who appears on to-night's card at the Arena will challenge the winner of the bout between Jackie Newman and Marat, who appear in the semi-main event. Davies has decided on this step, following his good showing in recent bouts.

TENNIS TALKS

USE CHOP STROKE TO GIVE VARIETY

By GEORGE M. LOTT JR.

It is a very fortunate player who has the chop at his command. This stroke may be used in several ways and is very valuable. It may be used as a defensive shot or it may be used as a means of variety. Then again it sometimes is just the thing to break up an opponent's game and put him to rout.

Wallace Johnson is probably the best example of a player who uses the chop exclusively. His game is purely defensive yet he has been in the "first ten" more times than any player in this country. Johnson chops everything, his service even being a chop. The fact that he never won the championship shows that a chop alone is not enough.

To my mind, the chop should be used only by way of variety. If you can keep your opponent guessing as to what is coming next, you have him at a disadvantage. A chop takes a different bound when it hits the ground than a drive, and by mixing the two an opponent is kept guessing. By doing this you prevent him from forming an attack of his own and he is on the defence, just where you want him. Also the difference in bound will upset his timing and he is apt to lose control of his shots.

Bill Tilden was, before he became champion, nothing but a chopper. Having a keen mind, he was quick to realize that he never would reach the top unless he learned other shots to go with it. Now Tilden has practically every shot in the game and only uses his chop occasionally, and then only to vary his forceful driving game or to play to an opponent whose weakness is the handling of low balls.

TILICUM ELEVEN MUCH TOO SMART

Tillicums walked off with their match against the T.-V. eleven in the Wednesday Cricket League yesterday by 182 to 39.

The T.-V's were all out for the smallest score of the season due to the fine bowling of Freeman and Heinke. The fielding of the Tillicums was excellent.

Freeman and Heinke also starred at the bat, the former getting 68 not out. Heinke's score was 37.

The Tilden's Ray and Five C's did not play owing to the members of the former team being in attendance at the opening of the tennis courts of the Bays.

HORSE RACING

Winnipeg, June 21.—Rochester II, running in his best form yesterday, won the President's Handicap, a mile and seventy yards, at the Polo Park meet. The big black five-year-old took command in the early running over a sloppy track and withstood a hard drive from Shasta Sheik in the final. Rochester II carried top weight at 124 pounds. L. M. McClair was up. Pine Manners was done after setting the early pace and finished third.

The Winnipeg Jockey Club enters the fifth day of its meet to-morrow and as yet have not had the sun shine once during the week. The track is a sea of mud and there is little hope for a change before the closing Saturday.

New York, June 21.—Over a heavy track, Nomad, Marshall Field's five-year-old brood gelding by Omar Khayyam-Bobolink, led the field in the Wheatley Steeplechase, feature at Aqueduct yesterday. J. E. Widener's Be Fair finished second, four lengths behind, and the Greenleaf Stable's Bold Knight was third.

Nomad, well played at 16 to 1, came up in the last half mile of the two-

DEEP SEA, COASTWISE SHIPPING, AND RAILROAD NEWS

CUSTOMS REVENUE FOR AUSTRALIA SHOWS DECREASE

Postal Revenue Up and Exports Increase, Trade Returns Show

Rigid Economy Applied in Public Works and Railway Development

Customs revenue returns for the month of March and first nine months of the fiscal year amounted to £25,335,340, compared with an estimate of £27,333,333, according to statistics compiled by Canadian Trade Commissioner D. H. Ross. It was learned to-day with the arrival of the motorship Aorangi.

The returns were £1,517,521 less than those received during the corresponding period of the previous year. Postal revenue, however, showed an increase of £64,620 over that of April last year, and of £247,120 for the nine months. The total amount received from this source for the ten months was £10,077,175.

EXPORTS ADVANCE

Overseas trade returns for the month of March and first nine months of the fiscal year amounted to a total of £231,609,904, comprising imports to the value of £116,605,696 and exports to the value of £115,004,208.

In comparison with the corresponding nine months of the previous year, imports declined by £9,625,587 and exports increased by £1,584,182.

Through the decline in the value of imports and a slight increase in exports, the adverse trading balance, experienced over a considerable period, appears to be gradually overtaken.

A quiet period in trading is generally anticipated until the harvest is gathered in.

ECONOMY PRACTICED
Economy is being rigidly applied to all public works and railway development. It is stated, in view of the certainty that practically every Australian state will show a deficit at the end of the current financial year, the government, however, continues most favorable, and the production outlook could scarcely be improved.

Five Tons of Frozen Fruit Exported as Market Test

Five tons of Saanich strawberries, frozen solid, will to-day be shipped to New Zealand as an experiment in market development.

LIBERAL PARTY STRONG IN CITY

Gaining Support Steadily Ward Five Speakers Point Out

That the Liberal Party was as strong in Victoria as it had ever been, and was steadily growing was the expression of four prospective candidates for the forthcoming elections, and of C. J. V. Spratt, president of the Victoria Liberal Association at an enthusiastic meeting of Ward Five Liberals last night.

Mark Graham, Dr. Lewis Hall, Fred White and W. T. Straith, whose names will come before the Liberal nominating convention at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Friday night were among the speakers, and all expressed absolute faith in the MacLean administration and in the policies of the Liberal Party as outlined in the manifesto of the Premier.

Mr. Graham made reference to the late John Oliver, "a man for whom we all had the greatest respect." The party was fortunate in having such a worthy successor in Dr. MacLean, he declared.

FINE RECORD

In going over the record of the Liberal administration for the last twelve years, while mistakes have been made, as everyone makes them, the results produced have been entirely commendable, continued Mr. Graham. They took hold of the reins of government at a trying time, as business men were fully aware and have attained success.

Friday night's convention is expected to be one of the largest ever held in British Columbia. Mr. Graham stated, urging everyone to turn out.

Dr. Hall referred to the fact that he had been in the political fight with the Liberal Party all his life. "I believe in the Liberal principles," he declared. "I am fully in favor of the legislation they have placed on the statute books during their administration."

INDUSTRIAL PROGRESS

Dr. Hall dealt with the industrial progress of the Province under the Liberal regime. The industrial payroll in the Province last year was $177,522,787.

"How then can Conservatives claim industries are not growing?" he asked.

No provincial government in the Dominion had done as much for labor and social work as the British Columbia administration during the last ten years, he asserted.

Mr. White declared he was heartily in favor of Dr. MacLean as "a man we can all rely upon."

He pledged himself to work for any candidate nominated and commented, "I think we'll finish the elections with a smile."

OLD AGE PENSIONS

Mr. Straith dealt with the effectiveness of the Old Age Pensions Act, asserting that the work done by Conservatives in this city in speaking against this measure.

The Liberals are as a whole heartily in favor of old age pensions, Mr. Straith asserted. Examining the Conservative attitude he found they were not wholly in accord with the act. The only two Conservative bodies with a controlling majority who had had direct contact with old age pension legislation, the Senate at Ottawa and the Ontario Legislature, had refused it, he pointed out, claiming this as an attitude of Conservative policy. The professed support of Conservatives in the minority in various houses he considered camouflage.

Mr. Straith went on to deal with the sympathetic administration of the act, quoting actual cases with which he had come in contact where the measure had relieved suffering.

CONSERVATIVES DO HARM

"But the Conservative members for this city have done actual harm to some of the old folk in talk against old age pensions," he maintained. Statements that the plan was fraudulent and scheme for expropriating property had been met with refusals to apply for pensions by some needy folk.

In closing Mr. Straith referred to the broad minded Liberal policy of nominations, whereas all were invited to propose candidates, and "prepared" lists were not submitted in order to put over the nomination of preconceived candidates.

"I can assure you the Liberal party as a whole is growing steadily in Victoria," said Mr. Spratt. "The prospective candidates we have for this election are all worthy representatives of the party, and we feel sure those who are nominated will put up a fine fight."

PREMIER PRAISED

Mr. Spratt praised the act of Premier MacLean in accepting the invitation to seek nomination in Victoria, declaring the Premier was "coming to fight toe-to-toe in what was sometimes considered a Conservative stronghold." Dr. Toimie, he said, had deserted the capital city for what he considered a safe seat in Bannock.

"The Government can be proud of its record in the last ten years," Mr. Spratt declared, adding that labor and capital were more or less satisfied in the Province, making for better conditions.

Lester Patrick spoke briefly, paying tribute to the late John Oliver and complimenting the administration upon its business-like way of doing things.

Sooke

Sooke, June 19.—A very enjoyable evening was passed on Saturday at the Legion Headquarters when the members held a whist drive and dance. The ladies' prize was won by Miss Neal. Tristram Willett won the men's prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Lay have rented a home belonging to Mr. Tremble.

STOCK MARKETS — FITA COLA LAYS — GRAIN MARKETS

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

(By Branson, Brown & Co. Limited)

Winnipeg, June 21.—The wheat market displayed a very firm tone today with July leading the upturn and gaining on the deferred months. Export business over night was not large, sales being estimated at around 400,000 bushels and buying again, this business at the start gave the market a stronger opening despite the fact that cables were weaker than due. Prices eased off after the early demand was satisfied, but there was very little pressure on the market, the July appearing to be pretty well liquidated, and later when prices advanced steadily reaching new high on the movement.

July worked up to a par with October, where as it has been trading at a discount of 2 cents. Export business is showing some improvement and the past week's seaboard houses have been steady buyers of July wheat, and it is expected they will take delivery when the time arrives, which may ease up the local situation, which appears to be very heavy with large stocks in all positions. There was a fair cash demand for the lower grades, which were trading fractionally better than yesterday, but trade was not large, as offerings were very small. No. 3 Northern is still drab, but foreigners have taken a little this week.

Light showers were again received in Manitoba, but Saskatchewan and Alberta were mostly dry, although weather is cloudy and cool. Weather was reported as more favorable over winter territory, but severe damage to wheat has occurred in Kansas and Oklahoma. Argentine continues to ship wheat freely, this week's estimated clearance being 3,675,000 bushels. The market has now had an advance of 6 cents in three days, which should be sufficient for the time being unless foreigners come in for large shipments, but it is not expected they will follow these bulges as they are fully aware of the large supplies in this country. Winnipeg futures closed 1/2 to 1/4 higher, the strength being all in July.

Coarse grains: Outside of a very fair demand for barley there was very little doing in the coarse grain today, the demand being very thin for oats and rye. At the same time there was not much pressure. Oats and rye closed about unchanged, while barley finished 2 cents higher to 1/4 off.

Flax: Dull featureless market with a very light trade passing. Prices were somewhat easier, closing from 1 to 1/2 cent lower.

Chicago, June 21.—Wheat: Market was unsettled within a small range of prices. There was a fairly good class of buying on reports of black rust in the northwest, but selling developed and prices sagged lower.

Black rust: It is thought to do much damage for two or three weeks, further hail storms were reported in parts of Kansas, and some heavy rains in parts of Oklahoma.

Weather was generally good in these states today, but forecast suggested unsettled weather over practically the entire belt.

Crop reports in Canadian northwest remain favorable. Export demand was rather low. We are bearish on wheat.

Corn: Liquidation was renewed in corn and prices declined to a new low on the move for July and to a new low on the crop for September and December.

The selling, while coming largely from locals, was believed to be on outside orders.

WHITNEY LETTER

New York, June 21.—(By Branson, Brown & Co. Limited)

The Wall Street Journal says today:

"While it is not to be expected that prices of even sound stocks will immediately start higher in a uniform manner, this market has definitely been placed upon its feet and with but two or three periods of intermediate uncertainty to be expected as a result of renewed efforts on the parts of shorts, any thought of additional liquidation capable of breaking last Tuesday's lows are not to be considered. This market has definitely turned and except for the temporarily adverse effect of the one or two additional lows which may be overhanging the market, and the possibility of fears regarding the ease of credit, should continue to give us substantial profits on the most of the sound issues purchased at these levels.

"Cons. Gas has started and will continue to advance capable of placing it at least twenty points higher than present level, and likewise Sears Roebuck, which should be purchased before it gets away too far from you. The rails, Atchafalpa stands out particularly as the most likely candidate for the first rally to register a new high price for 1928.

Among yesterday's advances of 15 points, Atchafalpa gained 15 points, and meriting at least one-half acceptance."

the market hardly gives any evidence of having completed its downward readjustment and until it reaches a turning point and stabilizes there, for better we see little reason to hurry about buying stocks.

S. B. Sachs.—It seems to us that no sustained upward is in immediate prospect. A change, therefore, from our suggestion to utilize rallying periods for the further lightening of speculative holdings seems inadvisable as yet.

WALL STREET To-day

(By B.C. Bond Corporation's Leased Wire)

New York, June 21.—(By B.C. Bond Corporation's Leased Wire)

The evening edition of The Wall Street Journal says: "About all that can be said on the day's market is that the first hour rally did out very quickly and just as on Wednesday, the market lapsed into extreme dullness, the lethargy being even more pronounced than it was on the preceding day. Early in the afternoon the rally took a small jump forward and for a time General Motors was vigorously picked up.

"These tactics seemed to be inspired by traders who apparently were arguing that if the selling had dried up perhaps the line of least resistance temporarily would be on the upside.

"When the market rallied in the afternoon, the rally was not in plant-

UNUSUAL BIRDS

A sitting hen is lost to everything but her duty. Instinct plays its part, for at the time when she should hatch her eggs a great heat develops in the breast of the sitting bird; her brood patch is hot. When the wait is ended and the babies come cheeping forth, her tender care has only begun. Here is pictured an Antarctic bird, the Skua, with her chick.

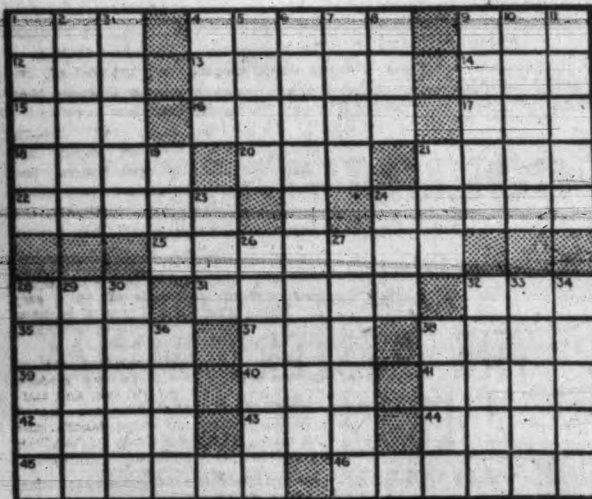

These downy little chicks are Tinamous. They are South American birds and run almost as much as they fly.

Here is a little brood of White Storks. They are very different in appearance from the long-billed parents.

A mother Tern, out with her baby, is pictured above. They are the Drakes and Raleighs of the bird world, Arctic Terns sometimes traveling as much as 22,000 miles a year. Terns have been known to fly from Arctic to Antarctic. The bird is a great fish eater. The Tern builds its nursery near the sea, in some nest scooped out among pebbles. (To Be Continued)

To-morrow's Horoscope

FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1928

One of the rarely fortunate days in the circle of the year is forecast in the reading of the stars for this date. Astrologers find many benefic aspects strongly active. This day's configuration is especially helpful to people research and it is believed to impart great clarity of mental vision. Many remarkably beautiful buildings are to be started in 1928 and they will transform familiar cities with in a decade, astrologers foretell. There is a sign of promise for all who seek promotions or employment of any sort. Prosperity is to be great as the Autumn advances, but there will be many dark prophecies that never come true.

The new era has advanced to a place where what were once miracles will multiply and material prosperity will merely foreshadow spiritual development, the seers prognosticate. Under this way love affairs are supposed to be peculiarly fortunate, for romances will last because there is true understanding.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a happy year marked by unexpected good luck, especially in health conditions. Children born on this day probably will have unusual artistic talents. Many musicians are born under the signs which promise great fame. (Copyright, 1928)

AT CRITICAL TIMES FROM YOUTH TO AGE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Proves its Worth

MRS. W. V. RUSSELL
R. R. No. 5, Fenwick, Ontario

"I am taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during the Change of Life for nervous feelings, loss of appetite and to gain strength. It is a great tonic and I have taken a dozen bottles of it. It was recommended to me by a friend and now I recommend it to all women for such troubles as come at this time."—Mrs. W. V. RUSSELL, R. R. No. 5, Fenwick, Ontario.

There are three trying periods in a woman's life: when the girl matures to womanhood; when a woman gives birth to her first child; when a woman reaches middle age. At these critical times, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helps to restore normal health and vigor. Countless thousands testify to its worth.

Aunt and Niece Helped

"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for my monthly troubles and it has given me wonderful relief and I have taken only four bottles so far. My aunt said it helped her in the Change of Life and for other troubles. I am feeling real well now, thanks to the Lydia E. Pinkham's Medicines."—GLADYS E. FIDLER, Bittern Lake, Alberta.

SAFETY ZONES BEING MARKED

City Police Prepare to Enforce New Traffic Regulations

City police are now engaged in the marking of the new arterial highways and safety zones for street car users. This is being done under the clauses of the new traffic regulations recently passed.

The safety zones are placed at the embankment point for street car users and are thirty-six feet in length and six feet wide. No automobile is permitted to drive over this zone, whether a street car is stopped at the point or not. In the next few days heavy wooden bumpers will be placed at the angle ends of the zone.

The rule affecting safety zones will not be enforced until the police are certain the motorist has had sufficient time to acquaint himself with the regulations.

While motorists may pass a street car wherever there is a safety zone, the old rule will be enforced where there is no zone.

The following are the corners at which zones have been located: Northwest corner of Douglas and Yates Streets, on Douglas Street; southeast corner of Douglas and Yates Streets, on Douglas Street; northeast corner of Yates and Broad Streets, on Yates Street; northwest corner of Government and Yates Streets, on Government Street; northwest corner of Government and Port Streets, on Government Street.

Ganges

Ganges, June 21.—Boy Scouts held their enrollment and supper at the Mahon Hall, Friday evening, when Mr. Ravenhill, the assistant provincial commissioner, visited here for the investment of the Scouts and Cubs of the First Salt Spring troop and pack. The Cubs, under their cubmaster, Mrs. Ley, were first enrolled by Mr. Ravenhill, who afterwards invested the scoutmaster, Desmond Crofton. The two patrols, the Wolf, under Patrol Leader Patrick Crofton, and the Beaver, under Patrol Leader J. Hobson, which at present form the First Salt Spring troop, were each enrolled by their scoutmaster. The officials of the Ganges I.O.D.E. who had been responsible for the founding of the movement on the island, and parents of the boys were present. Dr. Sutherland presented the Wolf Cub pack with their flag, and Mr. Bullock presented the Union Jack to the Scout troop. An excellent supper was served by members of the local Scout committee.

Miss Ethel Thornton has accepted the position of matron of the Gulf Islands Lady Minto Hospital.

The tarring of the roads between Central and Pultore is going on rapidly, and the roads are being greatly improved.

Extra! Press Agent Tells Fib About Miss Brooks

Louise Brooks

Hollywood, June 23.—Hollywood often presents its luminaries to the public in a false light. Perhaps it is because there are a flock of press agents out here who must make a living.

The latest victim of such false propaganda is Louise Brooks. A story which came through the mails from Miss Brooks' press agent makes the actress out as a blase, conceited girl.

"Well, let's hurry and get it over with," that was her press agent's version of her reply to a newspaper writer's announced intention of interviewing her.

What she really would reply to such a proposition would be, "Oh! Grand!" "And if a producer told her that she was to be starred, she would say, 'Not a bad idea. Funny no one thought of it before,' says her press agent.

Actually she would reply, "I really appreciate what you want to do for me, but I would prefer to remain just a featured player."

"MYSTERY WOMAN OF PERSIA" OPENS AT COLUMBIA TO-DAY

June 21.—The Fox Film featured player who opened a three-day engagement to-day at the Columbia Theatre is "The Mystery Woman of Persia," in which she is supported by William Russell and Walter Pidgeon, has completely won the hearts of photoplay fans in this city as a result of her clever characterization in the fast-moving comedy-drama directed by Albert Ray.

Miss Collier, who is a newcomer to the films, is a New York girl who got her first important role with George O'Brien in "East Side, West Side." As a result of her fine work in that picture, in which Virginia Valli is featured opposite O'Brien, Miss Collier was signed to a long-term contract by William Fox.

"The Mystery Woman of Persia," a lively story centring about an American Consul in Jeddah, has been admirably directed by Mr. Ray.

COMEDY PICTURE PRODUCES LAUGHS AT VARIETY HOUSE

With the market saturated with so-called "polite comedies," it is a relief to finally find one that really is worth while. Such a picture is "Skinner's Dress Suit," directed by Ziegfeld, featuring a successful run at the Variety Theatre this week.

It is a clever story taken from the famous book of the same name by Henry Irving Dodge and it has been capably directed by William A. Seiter, famous for his deftness and facility of direction.

FAMOUS GIRLS' BAND IS FEATURED AT THE CAPITOL

"The Ingenues," the spectacular stage offering at the Capitol Theatre this week, is certainly proving very popular. This act is positively one of the greatest stage band attractions there is to-day. Twenty beautiful girls, all glorified by Ziegfeld, beautifully costumed, in a typical New York style, in a stage setting that is a revelation, and with lighting effects that work with clock-like precision found only in a Ziegfeld production, are offering the jazz fans with their brilliant and novel ensemble numbers and for the symphony lovers, if youth and beauty does not win them over, their musicianship on so many instruments does.

"The Ingenues" are appearing three times daily on the Capitol stage. Frank Currier, veteran character actor of the stage and screen, is a member of the cast of "Easy Come, Easy Go," Richard Dix's new starring vehicle for Paramount, the feature attraction at the Capitol Theatre.

The production on the Owen Davis story was under the direction of Frank Tuttle.

Currier is cast in the role of the popular comedian in the amusing farce which sees Dix unwittingly the accomplice of a famous crook.

The March, one of the most famous ships in the history of American shipping, centred of a thousand adventures in the Orient, and used by a famous explorer to plough through the ice of the Arctic, was Ramon Novarro's home for more than a month when it sailed the Pacific as a floating studio for his newest starring vehicle, "Across to Singapore," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, now playing at the Dominion Theatre.

The experts in charge of the work, before they could study Chinese architecture, had to study Chinese religion. This was absolutely necessary because every detail of Chinese building design hinges on the religion and superstitions of the people.

On the stage are three clever acts headed by Florence Shirley lyric soprano, singing two good numbers, followed by Benet Sisters.

THREE CLEVER ACTS AND FEATURE FILM ON COLISEUM BILL

Only the closest study of the effects obtained, can give some idea of the magnitude and magnificence of the settings used in the production of "The Chinese Bungalow."
